

Mary Della Aman

June 21, 1931 - December 6, 2011

Mary D. Aman passed away at the age of 80, on December 6, 2011, after an extended illness at St. James Health and Rehabilitation Center, Carrabelle, Florida. She was born Mary Della Baggett on June 21, 1931, in Dixon, Tennessee, to parents, Edgar and Ethel Baggett.

After graduating from high school in Missouri in 1949, she moved to Chicago, Illinois, where she met the love of her life, Fred Aman. After a brief courtship, they married on April 1, 1952. After her husband served in Korea, Mary and Fred made their home in northern Wisconsin, where they raised three children in Land O' Lakes, Wisconsin.

Mary worked devotedly alongside Fred for 25 years at his taxidermy studio, and also was an essential partner in their art gallery and gift shop, Aman's Galley North, in Eagle River, Wisconsin.

Without a doubt, one of the greatest joys in her life was her two granddaughters. They filled a special place in her heart, like no other.

After moving to Lanark, Florida nearly 30 years ago, she became involved in the local garden club, boat club, ladies club, as well as The River of Life Church.

Mary always kept an upbeat attitude, no matter what challenges life presented, and was a friend to everyone she met.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Big Bend Hospice, 1723 Mahan Center Blvd, Tallahassee, FL 32308.

Memorial services will be Sunday, December 11, 2011 at 2:00 p.m. at Lanark Village Community Church.

Mary is survived by her husband, Fred Aman; son, Robert (Bob) Aman, and daughter, Nancy Aman. She is also survived by granddaughters: Alison Fischer and Miranda Fischer. She is further survived by brothers: Guy Baggett and Bob Baggett; and sisters: Margaret Edwards, Ruth Bess and June Baskin.

She is preceded in death by her parents; son, Carl Aman; brother, Ed Baggett and sister, Hazel Hafner.

Bevis Funeral Home, Harvey-Young Chapel, Crawfordville, FL is in charge of arrangements, (850-926-3333 or bevisfh.com).
