“ I know this is a difficult time for your family and I hope during a quiet moment you find solace in the reassurance that is found in the bible at Rev 21:4 it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more... The former things have passed away. In our thoughts

We want you to know that we care very much about you and if there is anything we can do to help you we would like to offer to do so. “ I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one and share the hope promised in the Bible.

Jesus promised that “those in the memorial tombs will...come out.” (John 5:28, 29)

In harmony with God’s original purpose, those resurrected as humans will have the opportunity to live on a paradise earth. (Luke 23:43)

This promised future includes perfect health and everlasting life for obedient humans.

The Bible says: “The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.” (Psalms 37:29)

“ I would like to give my sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mary Carrouth. I did not know her personally, but I am sure that she was loved dearly and certainly will be missed. The loss of a loved one often brings much sadness and pain. However, please know that God takes note of your distress and he "is near to the brokenhearted." (Psalm 34:18) God has promised that soon death will be a thing of the past, only a distant memory. (Isaiah 25:8) We can look forward to enjoying life again with our dear loved ones who have passed away in death. (John 5:28, 29) I hope that these thoughts will provide a measure of comfort in this time of sadness.
