“ Barbara and Janice, we are so sorry for your loss, your mom was one of a kind. During the moments we were with her, Aunt Mary Claire always gave us full attention to hear how we were doing, a hug to comfort or encourage and told us she loved us. We love and miss her and we love you.

Mary always had an encouraging word, a beautiful smile and a loving spirit. She and our Mom volunteered in the nursery for many years at Forest Heights together and rocked and loved on so many precious babies❤️ She never lost her nursing skills and was always there to help in any way she could. We will miss her so much but know she was ready to get to her eternal home and what a celebration is happening
