“ Condolences to DJ and Family. Mary Ellen was always the "older" cousin, the cool one, the best dressed. One time she came to stay with us in the Everglades with a pet monkey. What a hoot. Miss you but know we will be together again.: now I have to be the oldest cousin

“ There are so many memories since 8th grade. Mary and I talked about a lot of those last month and had a lot of laughs. Especially when her Mom found her diary and read it. The following Sunday we had to sit on the front row in church, since her mom was in the choir, so she could keep an eye on us. Believe it or not she and I were teaching 4 year olds in Sunday school as our punishment from her Mom. The preacher's twin boys were the worst kids.
