“Mary enjoyed life, and never met a stranger. Mary lived in Virginia, and met Neil, her husband, while he was in the Army. They traveled together to Thomasville, GA February 1951 and married - she being a young bride of 16 yoa. She told me of the many exciting places during his tenure in the military, with most of the tours being out of the country - German, Okanowa(?), etc. with finally settling down in Tallahassee, FL when Neil was sent to Vietnam and eventually retiring from service. Mary and Neil were a blessing to my life in the years I have known them since the '80s and even upon her husband's passing in April 2000. I truly feel honored in having the opportunity to be a part of their life. Mary enjoyed her strawberry collections, cooking, and FSU football team. I am going to miss speaking and spending time with her every day, but will cherish my many memories with her and knowing she is my new "guardian angel".

With love, Rebecca
