“ I am so sorry to hear the passing of my Cousin Maxine Vause Butler and I am certainly sorry that I couldn't be with her on her last days. She really was a sweet and caring person and she loved her family very much. I am glad that she had a sister-in-law, nephew and niece and a cousin that lived nearby that cared for her daily along with a dear friend related to us on our Grandma Colvin's side of the family. Being up here in Atlanta area it is hard to get down as often as I wanted to. Maxine has had a hard time of it the last few years and now may she rest in peace with The Lord. Your Loving cousin
