Oh Evan, what a beautiful tribute to Melissa! So caring and loving. You were both blessed to be with each other. I am glad you had many years together. I have a lot of memories of our adventures together. Many years have passed that we have not seen each other and I still and will hold her dear to my heart. God bless you, Ev. Hope to see you soon.

*Thank you Evan for such a sweet tribute to your wife. 30 + years was a long time of loving memories to keep in your heart safe. I knew she loved to color & paint, & I knew she loved Rick Springfield but I didn't know she got to meet him! 😊 God bless you Evan. I know you'd like to have Melissa here with you, but you know she got a new body on the day she left with no more pain. Love you ☐

“ I miss my almost daily conversations with her. We would chat about anything from loud noises at night to politics. Her sense of humor and deep caring for others made her the best neighbor and friend.

Safe journey, my friend. You are missed and loved. ❤️🕊

“ Melissa and I have known each other since 2nd grade. She was one of those dear friends that I could talk to every day or every other month. It didn't matter when one or the other of us reached out, we picked up right where we had left off. She was one of my biggest supporters no matter what I wanted to try and one of my biggest cheerleaders. In other words, she was one of my very best friends...one of those few people that come into our lives and makes such a difference with their personality and spunk. I loved her so much and am so thankful for the memories with her. Evan, Kenneth, and all the family...I love you guys too. Thank you for sharing Melissa with me.
