“ Mellie and I shared many stories, hopes and dreams of our children. We have cried and laughed together!and then there were GRANDchildren!!!!

We said we couldn't wait to get old enough to be "bossy" like our Mothers!! Ha, Ha!!! So you see we go W-A-Y back!

I am so proud of you three kids. It was not always an easy job being a single parent but you all have made wonderful, responsible adults. Your care and love for Mellie was very obvious. None of you have had an easy life but by the Grace of God you have pushed on. We know Mellie suffered lots in the last few years but she never gave up and never lost her faith. . She is at rest now but I can tell you from experience this next year will be very emotional for you. Please remember I am here and will be honored to walk beside you.

*With my sympathy,
Caroline Richards*
