“ Aaron and family, We are so sorry for your loss. Sometimes we do not understand the why or understand God's timing, just remember that everything is in God's perfect plan, and He chose the two of you to love and protect your special child, I pray that He comforts you, through your family and friends or through a kind word from a stranger and also gives you the strength to face the many hard days ahead, May you feel His presence, especially in the coming season as we celebrate Jesus birth. Rejoice in the fact that your son is now healthy in mind, body and spirit. I pray that you feel God's loving arms around you, giving you the comfort and peace that only he can give. Know that many people are praying for you. Don and Sandra Stallings
