

Michael Patrick Leonard

July 4, 2007 - October 24, 2021

Michael Patrick Leonard, age 14 passed away on October 24, 2021. Beloved son of Curtis and Kathleen Leonard, Michael was a lifelong resident of Tallahassee. An active member of Tallahassee Bible Church, he enjoyed serving in the young children's Sunday School classes. Home educated, Michael was also part of Classical Conversations.

Michael's infectious smiles lit up the soccer field and his energy could be seen on full display in the pool as an avid swimmer. A fearless goalie, his defensive skills made the difference in many games. Michael's skills on the pitch translated to being a desired teammate in Rocket League, often carrying his team to victory. His strong imagination, creativity, and problem-solving expertise was evident as he and brother Eli constructed, explored, and tamed the world of Minecraft. When not teaming up with his brothers, Michael loved Legend of Zelda, fitting since he and the main character Link shared a similar curious and kind-hearted nature.

The youngest of eight, Michael was revered by his nieces and nephews and will be forever missed by his siblings C.J., his wife Lynae, their kids Makayla, Teddy, and Tommy; Danny, his wife Tricia, their sons Calvin and Nate; David, Joey, Katrina, Peter, and Elijah; Grandma Barbara Bender, Uncle Don, Aunt Maggie, Elizabeth and Julianna; Uncle Brian and Aunt Trish, and Aunt Liz and Paul Vinburg.

The family will receive friends Friday, Oct. 29th from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at Bevis Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held 1:00 p.m. Saturday, Oct.
