“ Dear Day Family;

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one.

Death is an enemy to mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline; "When Death is Swallowed Up Forever....." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states: "And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain anymore. The former things have passed away. What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitle "What Hope for Dead Loved Ones"? If you have any Questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences, may the God of peace be with you and your family.

*Sincerely Yours,
Brandy Molina*

“ Chris, Ronnie, and all of the family,

Our hearts just break for y'all. Shelly was one of the most delightful, strongest ladies we have ever had the pleasure to know. Shelly's smile always was full on, all the way through to her eyes. We had such a great time a couple of years ago when Shelly and I took off to Key West while the guys were in their Organized Fishermen of Florida meeting. As hard as it is to lose a spouse and friends, losing a parent just hurts so deeply. It's slow, but one day y'all will notice the memories of Shelly bringing more smiles and chuckles than tears. Shelly will be like a rainbow, elusive but always around us.

Ronnie, that northern girl took to the life of supporting her commercial fisherman husband like a duck to water! :-) Through all the times, the tough as well as good, Shelly was right there, working the boat, the nets, the fish, the crabs, always standing by her man :-) Watching the two of y'all together always brought a smile to those of us around.

.... and watching our three St. Mark's cats always bring Shelly to mind! Thank you and Shelly for unselfishly opening your hearts and homes to the stray and abandoned cats that found their way to your door. Such a fitting memorial to Shelly to continue the St. Mark's Cat Rescue!

All of our love, hugs, and prayers to all.

With our deepest condolences,

Jerry and Dixie
