

Millard "Jane" Mitchell

April 9, 1928 - December 26, 2022

Millard "Jane" Hooks Mitchell, age 94, passed away on December 26, 2022 in Crawfordville, Florida. She was born on April 9, 1928 in Graceville, Florida to mother Gertrude Williams Hooks and late-father Millard Hooks, who was the source of her namesake when he preceded her in passing before her birth. After graduating high school, Jane would later meet the love of her life: Brown Dovel "B.D." Mitchell. They later moved to Lynn Haven, Florida.

Despite the urging of many who recognized her genius, Jane decided to forgo college so she could marry her sweetheart and start a family. Although she took part-time jobs briefly, she much preferred the tedious, full-time job of a mother and homemaker. Jane loved her family, cooking, gardening, bird watching, reading, writing and most passionately: the Lord. Her favorite time was when the children and families gathered at their house for meals. She treasured 74 years of marriage to Dovel and made sure to read to him from the Bible daily. They were members of Lynn Haven United Methodist Church for 65 years.

Survivors include her loving children Barbara Gregg (Don), Beverly Dodd (Dwight) and Michael Mitchell (Judy); grandchildren Leslie, Bryan, Kristi, Kerri, Mandi, Casey, Bruce Jr., Steve and Erik; son-in-law Bruce W. Nolte, Sr. as well as many great-grandchildren and extended family members. Along with her parents and her husband, Jane was predeceased by her beloved daughter Brenda Mitchell Nolte sisters Francis Elijah Hooks Ivy and Johnnie Myrl Hooks Singley and her brother Tom Sanders.
