“ *We were the same age working at Publix, I was transferred to his store. He was tuff on me and I was so easy to get upset. As his baker. I always knew that I had something but I didn't shine there. So I quit after 2 years even though he tried to stop me. Looking back at those days in 1994 I realized that he was only trying to make me better at my job. Unfortunately I didn't realize just what a leader he really was. Fast and good! A true professional. My Old Friend I'm sorry you're no longer with us you are greatly appreciated and missed! “ Milton always had a smile on his face and was fun to work with. His dedication to Publix is inspiring. Milton often spoke lovingly of his family who meant the world to him. I miss Milton but will always remember him. Sharon
