Nannette Rodgers Jackson

Nannette Rodgers Jackson, 87, passed away on Tuesday, March 11, 2014, in Tallahassee, Florida. The daughter of the late Jeanne Elise Westcott Rodgers and Richard Mast Rodgers was born on January 16, 1927, in Springfield, Ohio. She spent her early years in Miami Beach, Florida before moving to Connecticut where she met her husband of 66 years, Fred Jackson.

Nan was ever constant in her faith as a life-long Episcopalian. She was active in the life of each church she attended--Sunday school teacher, altar guild, Episcopal Church Women, and Daughters of the King. After 34 years in Miami and Marathon, Florida, she moved in 2002 to Tallahassee to be closer to her children and grandchildren. All through the years, she has faithfully given of her time, talents, and treasures.

Nan was a loving wife and an awesome mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She is survived by her two daughters, Margo Jackson and Kathy Bye (Ray) both of Tallahassee, Florida; two grandchildren, Philip Jackson Bye (Catherine) and Ellie Bye Haga (Barrett) of the Washington, DC area; two great-grandchildren, Jackson and William Bye; and her sister Florence Rodgers of Australia.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, and her two sisters, Jeanne Brake and Patricia Clark.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, March 22 at 10:30 AM at Episcopal Church of the Advent, 815 Piedmont Drive, Tallahassee, FL 32312, with reception to follow in the Parish Hall. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the memorial fund at the Episcopal Church of the Advent.

“ It's very hard to bear the loss of someone so dear. And although there is little that one can say or do to take away all your pain, please know that you are in the thoughts and prayers of many. May every loving memory be like the warming rays of sun which help to bring some comfort when the pain and sorrow comes. And may you continue to assure your heart that Nannette is safe in God's memory. Malachi 3:16; Micah 4:4. May God grant you comfort and peace. With heartfelt condolences.
