“ Dear Bell Family;

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one.

Death is an enemy to mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline; "When Death is Swallowed Up Forever....." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states: "And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain anymore. The former things have passed away. What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitle "What Hope for Dead Loved Ones"? If you have any Questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences, may the God of peace be with you and your family.

*Sincerely Yours,
Brandy Molina*

“ One of the things I remember most about Nathan was teaching him in Mission Friends. He was the smartest, brightest, most intelligent child I ever taught. He would come in week after week and tell us all about the missionary family we were studying for the month. I'm sure this was not only because of the Mission Friends lesson, but also because of what he learned about the kitchen table from his parents! Nathan will be missed by all, but I know he is running and dancing on streets of gold--as others have already said. Doyle and Susan, we are praying for you doing this difficult time.

“ There's not one time that I never saw a smile on Nate's face. He truly had the joy of The Lord in his heart. Though his time on this earth was short , he will be remembered always. Prayers and love for your family from Mark, Elaine and Matthew.

That small little man who had so many questions and was so full of life, truly taught me the unconditional love of Jesus as we shared time together in R.A.s. I'm truly blessed to have had Nathan as part of my life and look forward to seeing him again one day in heaven.

Nathan Bell is a Man among men. The lives that he has touched with his love, and the love of Christ, are changed forever. Nathan taught us more than any text book could. Nate will be missed, but as we miss him a smile will come over us like a warm summer day. Thank you Nathan.
