

O. Kristin Monson

July 22, 1941 - November 16, 2014

O. Kristin Monson, 73, passed away peacefully on November 16, 2014 surrounded by family after a short battle with cancer. Kris was born in Washington DC on July 22, 1941. She grew up in Larchmont NY graduating from Mamaroneck High School in 1959. She later moved to Massachusetts where she raised her four children. She received a BA degree from American International College in accounting, and became a certified public accountant working as tax manager for a national accounting firm. Later in her career, she was controller for a regional visiting nurses association, and served as a financial manager for a private school, and for a large social service agency. She also served as tax assessor, and then tax collector in Middlefield MA where she was a long time resident. After retirement, she moved to Tallahassee where two of her sisters live. She is survived by four sisters: Sally, Elle, Karen and Sue; four children: Stan, Karen, Lisa and Steve; five grandchildren: Mike, Kate, Joe, Jay and Lydia; and two great grandchildren: Sydney and Caleb; as well as their spouses, and many nieces and nephews. Kris thoroughly enjoyed her large family, many friends, extensive travel, reading, pets of every variety, and serving in her church and community. A memorial service will be held on Wednesday, November 19, at 11 AM at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 3717 Thomasville Rd., Tallahassee. A service in Middlefield MA will be held on Saturday, November 22 with interment in Pine Grove Cemetery. The family would like to thank the caring staff at the Tallahassee Memorial Hospital cancer unit and at Big Bend

Hospice. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to either of these outstanding service providers, or to the world humanitarian fund of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Todd Wahlquist with Bevis Funeral Home, 850-385-2193, www.bevisfh.com, is assisting the family with their arrangements.
