I didn't know Patty like some of you did, I didn't get the opportunity and the privilege of spending as much time as I would have liked getting to know her, though in the short time that I spent getting to know Patty I knew pretty quick that she was a special person. Patty was kind, thoughtful, generous, compassionate and loving. Patty was also real, she was blunt straightforward and she was not fake in the least, she was unapologetically herself which in this world is hard to pull off sometimes, she was high spirited like a wild horse that was tamed but not broken, she was tough as nails, she had grit! Some might say she was stubborn and hardheaded and set in her ways, but you could also say she was steady and strong and persistently loyal to her views and values of life. Patty had events in her life that some would say were the most heartbreaking thing anyone can go through, but despite the pain Patty endured more than once she chose to move forward and make the best of it. Patty was one of the Strongest and Bravest soles I have ever met and I will miss her so much I will miss her smile and her laugh and her advice and most of all her friendship. You could always be yourself around Patty, she had an easy-going joyful personality that made you feel like home when you were with her. I wish I had more time with her I wish we all had more time with her. Aunt Patty don't forget to take the long road home and enjoy the sights along the way and tell Jessy and Tiffany and grandma Janice I said Hello and may all your barrel races be under 15 seconds. May you be surrounded by green fields with rainbows and sunshine, wildflowers and dragonfly's and blue butterfly's and birds all kids and lots pretty ponies. I Love ya big bunches Aunt Patty miss you

“ 27 + years she has been my Patty Cakes and I her sugar bacon. We enjoyed our Monday buddy days together. My heart is broken that she is gone. I was so blessed to meet her so many years ago and have a life long friendship. Your favorite quote when our time together was the Carol Bernet song....I'm so glad we had this time together ❤️ I will miss that. You will always be in my heart My Cakes! I love you.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Patty's passing. She was always kind-hearted and giving. When I think about Patty I think about her infectious laugh and her wonderful sense of humor. Patty was my sister Susie's adopted daughter and one of our family. Patty took care of Danny when he was an invalid and couldn't do for himself and of course Susie. Patty will always be loved and missed. Thank You Lord for blessing us with Patty's friendship and love. ❤️

“Patty and I were friends starting our teenage years and remained friends over time. Her and I were towing on a bicycle leaving her mother's house and a man ran a light and hit us. She is home with her family and will be missed, I know we will be together again in God's time. Love you friend.”
