In memory of Patricia Ann Rimer

Beloved wife, mother, grandmother & sister. Born Jan 20, 1940 in Fredonia, NY. Died in Havana, FL, formerly a long-time resident of Bradenton, FL.

“Patty” was a Registered Nurse for 33 years both in private & hospital practice. Most notably she spent quite a few years in Neonatal Care at Manatee Memorial Hospital caring for countless premature babies. Her love of children led her to owning a private daycare for many years.

On her farm in Parrish, FL she boarded horses & raised pigs, chickens, cows, cats, birds, & dogs. She trained therapy dogs & would take them to visit schools, hospitals, nursing homes & anywhere she could cheer people up.

Patty was also an avid hiker & with her two sisters (Shirley Hardee & Mary Ringland) hiked sections of the Appalachian Trail. In addition, Patty was an ultralight enthusiast.

Patty is survived by her husband of 48 years, Fred Rimer. Her children from oldest to youngest are: Ed Shumaker (Michele), Joe Rimer (Lianne), Trudy
