“I am standing upon the seashore. A ship, at my side, spreads her white sails to the moving breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength. I stand and watch her until, at length, she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and the sky come to mingle with each other.... And, just at the moment when someone says, ‘There, she is gone.’ There are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, ‘Here she comes!’ “

-Henry Van Dyke
