“ Carol and Family,

The Love Trust and commitment your mom gave you each day brightly shines on each of you in your interactions with others! This is such amazing grace and a blessing that she gave each of you this special part of her to carry on in each of you!

“ Patty was my Mom's sister, best friend and my Aunt. They are now together again. One of my lasting memories of Aunt Patty is baking terrific biscuits, which was convenient since her husband Buddy, sold flour much of his life. They were a great couple that produced two great daughters. So long Aunt Patty.
