

Peter Kwame Apinyah

June 26, 1937 - July 17, 2022

Peter Kwame Apinyah, age 85, passed away on July 17, 2022 in Tallahassee, Florida. He was born June 26, 1937 in the Republic of Ghana, West Africa to parents Kodwo Apinyah and Elizabeth Melfah Apinyah.

After migrating to the United States, Peter obtained his Master's degree and became a teacher despite the adversity he faced at that time. He is remembered for his gentle, kind heart and his ability to maintain a positive attitude no matter the circumstance. Peter was a teacher all his life. He studied and discussed many topics, always interested in other peoples knowledge.

Peter enjoyed talking about his life and community in Ghana, always fondly remembering his love of his family. He truly relished his time traveling in the United States, enjoying the memories of the places and people he met.
