“ Bro. Ralph was a true gentleman. He was never rude to anyone. He often would slip notes with scripture verses to encourage (and sometimes correct 😊). I am so thankful we attended church together through my sickness with Covid. No doubt, his prayers were among the others that pulled me through it. He was such an encouragement to Dell. He longed for heaven, and now awaits there for his Jean, and all who name the name of Christ.

“ Jean, Gary, Terri, Chaise, Linda and all of the family, we were so sorry to hear of Ralph's homegoing, sorry that is for all of you and your separation from him, temporary though it be. We rejoice though for the joy that Ralph now has with our lord and look forward to joining him there. Be assured of our prayers that God comfort you each as only He can.

“ I am sorry for your loss and at the same time I know where his soul is now. We all know he loved our Saviour and worked daily for Him. We will all miss him but if we can endure the remainder of our journey we can meet him again and be with him eternally. I pray Gods peace be with you during this time and may your memories be sweet.
