“ WHEN I'M GONE; Unknown Author

*Release me, let me go.
I have so Many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie your self to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.*

*I gave you my love and you can only guess,
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.*

*So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for awhile that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.*

*I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So, if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near,
and if you listen with your heart,
you'll hear all my love around you soft and clear.*

*And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say, welcome home.*

*From Sherry Jean to Theresa Jane
Love you Big Bunches T*

“ While many come into our lives some leave a big imprint that stays with us forever. While many times in my past I would listen to Ralph sing and the only spirit I had came from a bottle. I still was so proud to say " Hey thats my cousin singing up there""The smoke filled, low ceilings, the stink from the stale water of Lake Jackson and Mr Red. We will not even talk about the next day. Anyway, while I am missing Ralph today I can say I could not be more proud that he found THE SPIRIT and filled his and the people around him with it as well. God knows who will use his words. I know Ralph is with God now and pain free and watching over us all. I found God myself many years ago and he forgave me and will welcome me as he has Ralph. I will be there in heart and mind today and this summer I hope to see most all of you in person. I love and miss my family very much. I pray for all of you please be at peace.
