“ I met Randy about 25 years ago while fishing down at the dam and every single year as the dam opened due to heavy rains the fish would pile up and it was game on. We would go year after year never missing a season of not fishing but catching. Randy was one of the best fisherman I've ever had the chance of fishing with. I could be right next to him throwing the same lure and he'd be steady reeling them in and I'm just mad as could be. He would ask to switch poles when he had a fish on so I could catch one just laughing away. I'm gonna miss you buddy and my condolences to the family.
