

Raymond Laney Pace Sr.

December 22, 1930 - October 10, 2021

Raymond L. Pace, age 90, died peacefully at home in Brandon on October 10th. Raymond served in the US Navy from 1948 -1953 aboard the USS Salem. He then went on to work for Texas Instruments (in Texas) before returning to Tallahassee to work for IBM. Raymond enjoyed working on things. Anything, including (but not limited to) cars, appliances, radios, televisions and watches. He had quite a collection! He also enjoyed growing things (especially peppers and flowers) and meeting people and helping them. He never met a stranger and would stop and help anyone in need.

Raymond was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 62 1/2 years, Edna Merle Barineau Pace, his son, Ray and his two sisters, Helen and Dorothy. Survivors include his children, Susan and Bill Fogarty of Brandon and Ronnie and Pam Pace of Tallahassee as well as five grandchildren Ryan Pace, Mary Kathryn Fogarty and Joshua Finkelstein, Katelyn Pace and Will Fogarty. He is also survived by his four brothers, Donald and Rosie Pace, Lonnie Pace, Robert and Connie Pace, Jimmy and Susie Pace, as well as his sister-in-law, Faye Barineau Hooks and numerous nieces and nephews.

“ Ray worked with my Father, Jerry Pace, at IBM. I also had the pleasure of working with Ray as a customer of IBM. To me, he was a brilliant man, always finding answers to computer problems I was having. He was very friendly and had a great sense of humor. I'm sorry for your loss.
