“ Richard, was a heck of a man! He was a dedicated husband to Jaylee, and father to Mikaela, and Calean. He loved to use his phone to take photos. Lots of photos. Richard loved to praise the accomplishments of his wife and children, the big accomplishments and the small ones too. He would walk up to me with the biggest grin and show me his proud family moments through his photos. He loved celebrating special dates of his Family, Friends, and Country. He loved his mom (often referred to her as his hero) and his siblings. He loved Jaylee's family emency. He would freely give of his time and finances if anyone in his family was in need. See, Richard did not have a division of Jaylee's family and his family. He loved us all deeply without selfishness.

We were more than brother in law, we worked together for the State of Florida for nearly 8 years. I saw Rich every day, we always hugged each other and shared "Love ya Bra" to each other.

Richard was a Marine, he wore it proudly. From all of his Marine Corp coffee cups, ball caps, T-shirts, truck stickers, license plate, flat top hair cut (horse shoe), his walk, and his talk. Everyone that knew my brother knew he was proud of his Family, Marine Corps and his Country. He wore a tough exterior, but had a big ole heart underneath! I do miss him and will forever hold great memories of my brother Richard Beebe. Rich, you've completed your time down here with us all. Now you are in a much better place Marine. Thanks for giving us wonderful memories to carry closely. Thanks for your service to keep our freedoms that we so overlook and take for granted. Until I am able to give you a Bro Hug again..." Love ya Bra!"

“Richard, who often I referred to as "my younger, older brother" since barely a year of age was between he and our oldest brother; and he always liked to rub it in he was the younger of the two. Richard had a focused mindset from a very young age. He had the ability and courage to speak to others what he felt they needed to hear.

We admired Richard for the goals he accomplished, to include being a dedicated husband and father, retiring from the Marine Corps, and most recent working diligently at State of Florida.

I now think of Richard being free of burdens that were never his to bare. I find comfort to know he lived his life with pride and honor, with a servant heart for his family and friends. I find strength in knowing he is rejoicing where his spirit is now.

I choose to remember the good that Richard brought into our lives, the time he gave selflessly, and how he strived in many ways to show how much he loved us all.

You rest now, brother. While I miss you every minute of every day, I will be looking forward to be with you again one day.

“ My most sincere and heartfelt condolences go out to the family and those close to Richard. Prayers are lifted up for all of them. May the Lord Bless and comfort them in this time of incredible sorrow. I knew Richard way back in the 1980's at Chipley High School and have such fond memories.

I also thank him for the sacrifice he made in service to our country to preserve the freedoms that we so easily take for granted.

*Sincerely,
Tena (Hartley) Mitchell*

“ Blessings and condolences to each of the family. I still can't believe he's gone. We live across the street from Richard's home. We are relatively new in the neighborhood but before our purchase was even finalized the neighbors would tell us, "Ricard, the Marine, lives right across from you. He is such a great guy." And we soon found out that Richard, the Marine was just that. He'd pull in his driveway about 6:10 week nights and my little dog would run to the front window, jump up on the couch and watch Richard get out of the truck and walk to his mailbox. I'd call Out to Luna, "did Richard, the Marine get any mail today?" When I'd go to watch , Luna waited to see Richard reading some of his mail, walking back up the driveway. Luna really misses him. Don't we all. And to watch him mowing that yard, you'd think he was in a contest. Yet, my sweetest of memories would be our conversations about our dear savior, Jesus Christ. We'd always conclude with "Amen! Amen!" This is what it means to live the full life. Sharing and caring. Of course, we will meet him on the other side and start up the conversations again. Do you think we'll find him mowing the yards?

Our prayers of comfort to you all. The Lord is my Shepherd. I shall not want.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Richard for the past 7 or 8 years. I learned very quickly that if he was your friend, he had your back. If you needed him he would not hesitate to help you. He loved Jay and his kids beyond words, there were very few days that he did not have pictures of his family to share with me. The last one I remember was the wedding dance his daughter, Mikaela, had done. He was all smiles when he showed it to me. He will be missed dearly! I will continue to keep his family in my prayers.

“ This is heart breaking. I remember when Richard started school at Chipley High School. He was really quite to start off with a tough guy personally. However once you got to know him he was a really cool guy, and if you were his friend you were his friend. You always knew where you stood with him , which was really refreshing.

He was a really cool guy without even trying.

*I want to says thanks for his service to our country and our freedom.
He will be missed*

“ It is hard to think about Richard without thinking about the Marine Corps. Even as a kid growing up around him, he always seemed to embody the spirit of a Marine, at least what I thought of them, being tough, loyal, dependable, and honorable. The things I remember most are the holidays: the Easter egg hunts at Grandmas and Papaw's and the Christmas mornings waking up and seeing everyone around the tree. Richard always seemed to have a smile growing up. Unfortunately, we didn't stay in contact as much after our parents separated, but I always still considered him as a brother and was heartbroken to here he isn't with us anymore.

“ 😞 I'm at a loss for words. Richard was a brother-in-law to me. He was funny, kind, a gentleman, but also tough. I always felt safe around him & loved to watch him with his family - Jaylee & the kids were his pride & joy. He will live forever through them & in my heart. A hui hou ❤️🇺🇸

“My dad was a great Marine, leader, and person. For everyone who knew him, you know how hard he loved those he cared about. My daddy always pushed me to be my best self and to always stand my ground, regardless of who was against me. I will cherish every little moment I got with him. Not everybody got to see how big my dad's heart was. I love you forever.
