“ My memories go back to some of the early deer camps we had here in Butternut, Wisconsin when Rick would come over with Skip, Sitting around the kitchen table at my Dad's place, telling stories about some of the adventures in Eagle River, when Erv was in his glory, he had a way of bringing those days back to life, I am so glad we were able to share those times together, it goes past much to fast, if heaven has a deer herd it's in serious trouble now!! Rest in peace my friend.
