

Robbie Jean Jones

October 23, 1933 - March 1, 2024

Robbie Jean Jones joined the Lord on March 1, 2024, at 90 years of age and never regretted a single day. She was the mother of three children, grandmother to five and was a great grandmother of many and loved by all.

Robbie was born in Chipley, Florida on October 23, 1933, to Joseph V. Tharp and Martha J. Tharp. She was a graduate of Chipola College, she worked for the Department of Education and was an accountant for several businesses in Leon County and surrounding areas. She was a prominent member of Victory Baptist Church.

She is survived by her daughter, Cindy Russell, and son-in-law, Roddy Russell, and is now joined with her late husbands, Samuel Roberts and Vance Jones; late daughter, Sandra Roberts; and late son, Robert Roberts.

The funeral service will be held at 11:00AM on Friday, March 8, 2024, at Bevis Funeral Home, 200 John Knox Road, with interment following at Tallahassee Memory Gardens.

Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live even though they die. John 11:25

Kelly Barber of Bevis Funeral Home (850-385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the Jones family with their arrangements.

“ Grandma you are and were my # 1. You raised me and taught me right from wrong (even though at times I didn't listen). You helped me more than anyone in this world. You are my everything and I thank you and love you for that. This has been really hard on me bc no one will ever understand what you meant to me. I love you and miss you so very much. I'll see you again and can't wait.
