“ I remember Rob in high school. He was always so sweet and had a smile every time I saw him. I'm so sad to hear of his passing. It's such a loss. My prayers go out to his family.

“ Rob was more of a big brother me. He was always looking out for everyone's best interest. He had a great, genuine and pure heart - something you don't come across too much now-a-days. He was always willing to help. He would volunteer his time each and time I would see him. I pray that his family is comforted in this tough time. God bless, and rest in peace Rob...

“ Donnie and I grew up with Robert. We got to know him better in high school. When we returned to Tallahassee, he was always our biggest encourager. He did so many things to make us feel special. I can't imagine a better friend. He was so fun and we laughed a lot together. He loved his family and friends. He puts time into small acts of kindness often that touched my heart in a very dear way. He reached out to Donnie too and was so happy for us when we married. He will be missed, is loved and never forgotten.

“ I had a lot of good times way back when with Rob. I will keep the family in my prayers and trust that he is in a better place than the rest of us. I guess we just never know why these things happen and never will. Rest in peace buddy.

“ Rob and I were roommates back in the 90's. We had some great times.
He was also a doctor!, yes he operated on our other roommate (Mike). He removed some stitches off Mikes face one evening. Of course he help Mike get those stitches also. After he and Mike wrecked his Camaro Rob was showing Mike how fast it was. Mike left his mustache embedded in the windshield.

“ I wanted to express my sincerest condolences and also offer some hope from God's Word since He is the God of all comfort. (2Corinthians 1:3,4) In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones. (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15) The bible tells us where this where this happy reunion will take place. (Psalms 37:10,11,29; Matthew 5:5) We are told why we die, (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12) and that soon the God of the bible will end death forever. (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4) I really do hope you find comfort in these scriptures. If you would like to learn more about what the bible teaches please visit JW.ORG.

“ Rob you were still part of our family even after our divorce. I am so thankful Dillon got to spend a lot of time with you and even more so the last few years. I still keep expecting you to bust through the back door like you always did and bring a barnabys pizza. I always admired your ability to always be in a good mood. You had a big heart and a lot of compassion for people. My heart breaks for your son. The two of you had big plans. I still can't believe you are gone.
