

Robert J. Angerer Jr.

July 16, 1968 - August 7, 2017

Robert (Rob) Jerald Angerer, Jr., 49, of Tallahassee, Florida, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, August 7, 2017.

He is survived by his wife of 27 years, Lori Angerer, beloved children Robert III (Trey), Claire, and Will Angerer, parents Rochelle and Ron Mayo, Robert and Jane Angerer, siblings Ronald Angerer (Tammy), James Angerer (Melissa), Thomas Angerer, Michael Mayo (Brianna), and sisters Shannon Angerer Parker (Josh), Rhonda Mayo (Theresa) and Rachael Mayo Burnetsky (Paul) and their families including many much-loved nieces and nephews.

Rob was an attorney with Iglar Pearlman and a graduate of Maclay School ('86), Vanderbilt University ('90), Mercer Law School ('93), and Tulane Law School ('94). He also practiced law with his father in the firm of Angerer and Angerer for a number of years. A beloved husband, father, son, brother, and friend, Rob (aka Robert, Jerry, Tyrone, Jerious Prime, Robertum) filled every room he was in with warmth and humor and made sure to bring a smile to every face. Robert's favorite pastimes most often included the activities of his children and included coaching little league baseball and softball, fishing, and traveling with his family.

Rob took immense joy in his family and they were the center of his life. He was an avid sports fan, with a fierce passion for FSU football but also became a closet supporter of the Gator Nation in honor of his firstborn son.

Above all, Robert was a follower of Jesus Christ and his family takes solace in the knowledge that he is now safely at home with his Father.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, August 12, 2017, at 11am at Celebration Baptist Church, 3300 Shamrock St E, Tallahassee, Florida. The family will receive friends immediately following the service at a reception at the church.

"Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and to him who has no might he increases strength. Even youths shall faint and be weary, and young men shall fall exhausted, but they who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint." Isaiah 40:28-31

Donations can be made to the Coral Reef Alliance (coral.org) or the American Heart Association. Todd Wahlquist with Bevis Funeral Home is assisting the Angerer family with their arrangements.

“ I met Rob last year in Gainesville when both of our daughters were playing softball. I enjoyed the few times we talked. It was a shock when my wife called and told me of his passing. The family is in our thoughts and prayers.

“ In the couple of years knowing Rob I learned several consistent things. I never heard him raise his voice, speak ill of anyone, and openly and consistently spoke of his love for his family. What started out as a business transaction ended up as a great friendship. Rob was and IS one of the best men I've ever know. Rest In Peace brother, you are and will be missed!

“ There are no words really. Rob was the kind of man and human being we all want to be like. He was kind, loyal, honest, supportive, caring, thoughtful and generous. He always had a smile and his sense of humor made others cherish him even more. He was always so kind and helpful to everyone. He was genuine and put others first. He loved and adored his family. I cherished our friendship and this hurts deeply. I am completely heart broken for everyone who was blessed enough to know him. He will be forever missed.
