I would like to share one of the first memories that my husband Bill & I shared along with Bailey our sheltie. We had only been in the Pineyz neighborhood for about a month, we were out in the yard with Bailey when Bob and Bonnie walked down our street. They had just adopted a (little black mutt) as Bob called him and they stopped to introduce themselves and their dog Trooper. Trooper and Bailey played in the yard while Bob, Bonnie, Bill and I got acquainted. I told my husband, I think I am going to like living in this neighborhood, the neighbors are so friendly and it is very much a pet friendly neighborhood. From that day forward, Bill, Bailey, Bella and I always looked for Bob and Trooper on our walks. Bob was such a joy to talk to. No matter what happens in our lives sometimes we let it affect our personalities on a day to day basis. Not Bob, he was the same way every time you saw him, no matter what trials and tribulations he faced, you would never know it. He will be missed in our neighborhood by my husband Bill and I and our two shelties, Bailey & Bella.

“ Bob always made me feel truly welcome when I came to visit Bonnie. He loved to grill and whip up new recipes....but he often had to call out, “Bonnie, this is getting away from me!” So Bonnie came to the rescue.

Many “philosophical” discussions over the dinner table had me laughing so hard I couldn’t breathe. He made fun of my southern background so I played along with outrageous tales of eating “fried possum”, etc....so many funny memories.

I will miss Bob. He was quite a character.
