To Robbie's family: I know your loss is overwhelming and your hearts are broken. People will tell you he is in a better place when you know his better place was at home with you. I give you my word though. The pain will never go away but it will get easier in time. Hang on to the memories & your hearts will always be able to feel him. This I know, I lost my only son 3 1/2 years ago. If you ever need a talk to some one who has been where you are or just need a shoulder to cry on, my email my email is dbljcc01@comcast.net. God bless you all in the long process you are going through.
