“ Ate Robin... She loved being called ‘Ate’, which means big sister in Filipino and I loved being her little sister. Ate Robin, I miss you. I miss your warm embrace. I miss your jokes & funny stories together with Kuya Dalton. I miss seeing you play with Buddy, Brooklyn, and Dodger in the yard. I miss your awesome & most epic lasagna. I miss our trips to the beach. I miss the days where me and mom were dreading with fear riding the rollercoaster, and you sat there and laughed at us. I miss you. It was always a fun time with you Ate Robin. Thank you for being with us. Thank you for the memories. You will forever be in my heart. I love you Ate Robin!

“ Robin, will always be our "Ate", (means big sister in Filipino), she is literally our eldest sibling and we look up to her in our blended family. Sadly, in the time of her passing I am currently miles away here in the Philippines where I am currently based. I will always miss our bondings as family especially when all of my sibling are present everytime I visit my family in Florida for the holidays. We miss you Ate Robin and we love you!!!

“ She was my best friend.

She was the first person I met when I first came to the US. She's been my best friend ever since.

Robin was instrumental in me landing my very first job here amongst many other things.

When Robin started her own business, we used to drive up to our clients together and I've had some of the most unforgettable memories with her during those times. Her smile, her voice, the traffic noise in the background, and the laughs we've shared. They are still so vivid.

We've gone on several trips, from places we loved to eat at, to Wild Adventures during the summer, to St. George Island, to watching a baseball game in Atlanta, and so many more. All of it I will forever remember with such great fondness.

I will surely miss all the delicious food that she'd prepare for both normal days and special occasions with the family. I will miss her energy around animals as she loved them so dearly.

I will be forever grateful for her, for embracing me and the kids as family right from the very beginning. She held my hands when I most needed help.

Robin was a strong and brave woman. An inspiration. We are heartbroken but we will honor and celebrate her life and the positive impact that she's had on others. Thank you, Robin.

“ Since the day I met her, our sweet Robin has always been a huge presence in our lives. Our hearts ache, but we know she is in the presence of Jesus. May the strength that comes from the Lord God and the peace and comfort of the Holy Spirit be with us all. (Dalton's Mom)
