“ Several years ago I contacted the Coast Guard to find out how to join the auxiliary; they gave my phone number to Ron who called me a couple weeks afterwards. That phone call lasted nearly two hours! Ron took an enormous amount of his personal time to share with me an endless amount of information and what to do to join. Ron is a person who cares about people and getting things done. He was there every step of the way for me. In our society, it's rare to find people who are unselfish and who truly desires to help people - Ron is certainly the exception as he has a heart of gold. Ron and I were friends and I will miss him a lot. My prayers are with you, the family, as I know you have lost a treasure.
