“ *I have so many memories of Russ but the one that stands out the most is when we vacationed with his family in North Carolina. We stayed at a cabin and I remember picking my dolls out carefully before going, as I knew he would pick on them. I chose my Cricket doll and, as expected, he picked on her and refused to give her back to me. I remember when I cried enough that he gave her back, I kept her in a locked room until we left. This is Russ..this is who he was. He loved to laugh, he loved to joke and he loved his family.
Words could never describe how much he is missed here on Earth and I am forever grateful to have been blessed enough to be his niece. He is dancing with Jesus and his parents now...but we will see him again one day and that will be a glorious day!! Until then, praying for Ruth, Jeremy, Bobbe, and his grandchildren that he adored!*
