

Sandra Gail Cookerly

December 20, 1942 - February 12, 2013

Sandra Gail Cookerly, 70, passed away on Tuesday, February 12th at her home in Tallahassee.

Sandy was born and raised in Miami and loved the outdoors. She spent countless weekends camping in the Everglades, fishing in the keys or riding motorcycles on the trails. And when she wasn't at work or out in the woods you could find her at the local bingo hall. While in Miami she worked as a bookkeeper for the same company for over 28 years.

She moved to Tallahassee shortly after Hurricane Andrew where she continued her work as a bookkeeper and was active in the local Harley owners group...and spent a lot of time at the local bingo hall.

She is survived by her two sisters, her three "boys" (Ronnie, Jimmie & Donnie), her six grandchildren and her two great grandchildren.

At her request there will be no funeral services or ceremony celebrating her life. If desired, please send memorials to Big Bend Hospice, 1723 Mahan Center Blvd, Tallahassee, FL 32308.

Tribute Wall

TT

“ Tommy Thompson lit a candle in memory of Sandra Gail Cookerly

---

Tommy Thompson - February 20, 2013 at 04:22 AM

TT

Still love you and miss you. You were the light of my life. Glad you are finally out of pain. I know you are in a better place now.

---

Tommy Thompson - February 20, 2013 at 04:28 AM

V.

“ To those left to cherish the memory of Sandra Gail Cookerly, I do extend sincere sympathy to all. Death is an enemy that leaves a pain in our hearts that seems to linger forever. Our Creator have made provisions to undo all the pain, sickness, and to put an end to death. The Sovereign Lord will give those faithful and obedient the eternal life and the joy of welcoming back those we have lost in death. (Revelation 21:4, Psalm 37:10, 29)

---

V.G. - February 16, 2013 at 12:33 PM