“ Medart AG was my familys home church from the late 60's until late 70's. I have many very fond memories of sitting in choir practice and laughing at Anne's jokes and listening to her beautiful soprano voice as it rang out through the church. When our Lord called her home,he got one very special voice for his angelic choir. My condolences go out to Michael and Rebecca,and the entire family. You also have my prayers and thoughts as you begin a new chapter in your lives. Blessings and peace be with you.
