

Sandra L. Till

January 24, 1936 - October 21, 2021

Sandra L. Till, 85, passed away peacefully at her home in Fayetteville, NC. She is survived by her sons: Reggie (Lisa), Jake (Donna), Larry, John (Lavonda), Peter (Sandy) and her daughters: Tami (Jim), Shirley (Anthony); her grandchildren: Bryan (Julie), Steve (Nicky), Peyton, Bailey, Cameron (Amanda), Eric (Melanie), Emily (Clark), Lucas, Nicholas, Jordan, Emily, Nathan (Kylie), Jared, Tayler, Tristan, Pete (Rachel); her great grandchildren: Abby, Emma, Brynley and Penelope; and countless other friends and extended family.

Sandra was born in Omaha, Nebraska on January 24, 1936, and was the daughter of the late Sterling and Dorma Davis. She spent her childhood in Nebraska and Montana, and she always kept her love of the mid-west. In 1954, while singing in the church choir at Glad Tidings Assembly of God in Omaha, her beauty and angelic voice caught the eye of a young Air Force Chaplain stationed at Offutt Air Force Base. He quickly realized she was even more beautiful on the inside. She soon became the wife of Chaplain Jacob E. Till, Jr, and they began their 55-year adventure together. She served alongside her husband as an Air Force Chaplain's wife in Nebraska, Texas, and Florida, and a pastor's wife in Quincy, Fort Braden, and the Tallahassee, Florida area.

It wasn't long after marriage that the Till family began to grow. Jake and Sandra had four sons within 5 years, and then Sandra gladly welcomed another son, a war refugee hungry for education, that Jake brought home from his military assignment in Korea. Several years later, two daughters joined the family, and Sandra spent 40 years of her life raising children. She taught her children and grandchildren the real meaning of selfless love and grace, and that true joy only comes from a relationship with Jesus Christ and service to others. The greatest gift she gave her children was the certainty she is spending eternity with our Heavenly Father.

In addition to her role as wife and mother, she also found time to decorate for numerous showers, receptions, birthday parties, weddings; cook weekly meals for the Quincy Exchange Club, host Sunday dinners, and she never turned away a wanderer who knocked at the church parsonage door. She served as a volunteer with the Red Cross, March of Dimes, and numerous other organizations, while also teaching Sunday School, conducting children's plays, singing, coordinating fund-raisers, visiting hospitals and nursing homes, and leading Women's and Girls' Auxiliaries. She provided transportation to anyone in need and still found time to enjoy gardening, sewing, crocheting, and crafting hobbies. Her greatest joy came from serving Jesus Christ and sharing His love, helping and giving to others, and talking about her kids, grandkids, great-grandkids, nieces, nephews, and friends.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Jacob E. Till, Jr. and her sister, Nora Kimsey Boggs.

The family wishes to thank Bevis Funeral and her friends and extended family for your compassion, care, and support. Words cannot describe our gratitude for your prayers, flowers, donations in her honor, shared memories, and love for our mom/grandmother.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made in her honor to the

"Till Scholarship Fund" at Emmanuel College (PO Box 129, Franklin Springs, Ga 30639) or the "His Hands Extended" meals program at Northwood Temple Church (4250 Ramsey St, Fayetteville, NC 28311.)

The family will receive friends Monday, October 25, 2021 from 1:00 p.m. until service time at Bevis Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. at the Bevis Chapel. Burial will follow at Roselawn Cemetery. The service will be available to view live online at <https://www.bevisfh.com>. “ Like so many others who were impacted by their witness and love, my life blossomed into a positive spiritual trajectory due in large part to the selfless nurturing of MeMaw and PaPa Till.

Beautiful inside and out, she is Ruth, Sarah, and Esther combined, a champion and hero of the faith, and the Naomi of my younger years. I have known no-one else with such grace and mercy!

I am encouraged even in sorrow that I will see her again in a life without worry or the busyness of living... we will feast at the feet of Jesus on french fries and Dr. Pepper!

“ Sister Till was one of the sweetest beings that God ever made. She and Brother Till were our pastors at Fort Braden Pentecostal Holiness church and we were blessed to know and love them both. I pray comfort and peace to her family.

“ As Sandra's cousin I remember Sandra and Jake coming to our house now and then when I was younger. I always admired and loved them both. Sandra had such a peaceful nature and always full of positivity and kindness. That remained true in our phone conversations over the last few years. I will cherish my moments with her.

“ I have so many memories. My favorite though is when she came and got me early out of school bought me Chandlers. Then broke news to me about my brother's motorcycle accident. She held me as I cried but we laughed and talked about her life. Things I was never told! It was our special time. We did the same a week before she passed. Both times were so special. I'll never forget
