“ Dear Family:
Please accept our heartfelt condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is a painful emotion as well as a situation we all face. Fortunately, our Heavenly Father has a solution. The Bible assures us that “Your dead one will live....they will rise up.” (Isaiah 26:19) May this promise, the promise that our Heavenly Father is near to those broken at heart, and the precious memories of your loved one be a comfort to you during this time of sorrow. (Psalm 34:18)
Our Deepest Sympathies,
The Webb Family

“ Don't even know where to start. I'm so sorry you had to go through so much in such a short amount of time. For the past few weeks, everytime I went to check out I'd look for you, in hopes you returned. Every day when I'd open the frig, I'd look for your lunch bag in hopes you were back. To me, I'll probably continue to do this for a long time to come. When I worked up front, I never looked at you as my CSS, to me you were my boss. I always knew if I wanted the correct answer you'd give it. You scared alot of people with you northern, straightforward, work ethic, attitude. However, I truly respected you. As our friendship developed. Fly high with your son! Love you!

“ Sharon,
You will be greatly missed! You were my closest co-worker and friend and I've been struggling without you. I really wish I could have said goodbye, but it's okay I understand.
I was devastated when Kevin called me today, I had no idea it was so serious. I love you Sharon, I pray you Rest In Peace and are enjoying the company of your son in Heaven 🍷
