“ Dear Revell Family;

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one.

Death is an enemy to mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline; "When Death is Swallowed Up Forever....." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states: "And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain anymore. The former things have passed away. What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitle "What Hope for Dead Loved Ones"? If you have any Questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences, may the God of peace be with you and your family.

*Sincerely Yours,
Brandy Molina*

“ Please accept my sincere condolences to the family. I can only imagine the heartache you must feel but please know the “God of all comfort” will comfort you. “He is healing the brokenhearted ones, And is binding up their painful spots.” (Psalms 147:3) “Jehovah will become a secure height for anyone crushed, A secure height in times of distress. And those knowing your name will trust in you, For you will certainly not leave those looking for you, O Jehovah.”(Psalms 9:9 & 10)

“ I am so, so sorry to hear the news. I had lost contact with Beth since high school - but I remember she embraced life boldly and with tremendous zest - my thoughts are with her family.

“ Our family is saddened by the passing of Beth. We started out as customers of hers and became friends. She always loved our boys and was never afraid of our oldest's disabilities. The world is a lesser place without her. She will be missed.
