“ I met Sherry at the Dept. of Health and worked with her for a short while. She was also so nice and focused on what was really important. She will be missed, and I'm sorry for the loss to her family. I know she was so fond of you.

“ I met my beautiful sister in law, Sherry, in 1990. She had a beautiful smile and always made me feel loved when in her presence. She had a beautiful spirit. I know that she is in the arms of Jesus. I am praying for the wonderful family that she left behind. I love you and wish that I could be there with you. I will be praying for peace and comfort in the days ahead.

“ Sherry, As I sit here and try to make sense of all this. I know that God knows best, he loved you so mush that he wanted you with him. Your memory will live on, because of the stamp of love you placed on us. Love you always, Sleep on my love!
