“ I remember our drives to school. The songs we would sing. I remember throwing up in the back of your car on the way home from Chuckie Cheese on my 8th birthday. I remember fishing trips, and long stories. I remember Sunday dinners and long talks about life. There are so many times that your patience and understanding made life more liveable. Your ability to forgive and love unconditionally is unmatched. The world was a better place while you were in it. We are all lost without you. You are forever in our hearts and minds. I love you Momma.

“ Grandma, you were one in a million. I will always remember and cherish the times I stood by you in the kitchen while you taught me how to cook. And in the summers when you and I would play games and share laughter together. I will miss you dearly, but you'll always be in my heart.
