“ I remember being delighted by Sid's smile. I always felt like I was the most important person in the world when he smiled at me. I remember the joy of riding the school bus with him behind the wheel. I always wanted to cross the street from the drug store to visit him and his dad at the Gulf station. Mama had to keep an eye on me with that busy street, but she needn't have worried because many loving eyes kept a watchful eye on me! Jackie Burda Quackenbush, Memphis, TN

“ Sidney was a good man. When God created the earth, He said it is Good. This is one of the highest praise you can give a man, God used the phrase it is Good. I say Sidney was always a good person. When he was in school he was good, as long as I have known him this has held true. He and Bobbye have been such a blessing to my grandchildren. Sidney left a everlasting impression on them. “ Jerry told me a story about Uncle Sid. In 1977 Jerry had just moved to Florida State and he was broke. He called his mother. His mama called Sid and said "go give my boy some money." Jerry met Sid in the parking lot of the bank. Sid gave him $75. That money got him through til his next paycheck. That's Sidney...always giving, no questions asked, always willing to help. That's who he was. We love you Uncle Sid and will always remember you with love.
