“ We've known Stacey a long time, she was such a beautiful soul, she went to high school with our girls at Wakulla high and graduated with our oldest daughter Stacey Whaley, our hearts go out to her family, Nathan if you ever need to talk you know who to call, we know how it feels to loose a child, same goes for her mother. We pray that God will sent his Angels to wrap his arms around Stacey's family and bring you blessed peace. We love you and you're forever in our hearts.

“ I met Stacey during the times when she and I would be taking our kids into there class rooms in the mornings at NFC school and would be able to talk with her breiffully. She was always so friendly and easy to know and had the most caring dedication to her daughter about making sure she got into class safely no matter how bad She may have felt. She will always be remembered and missed by me and my son Kenlock. Your friend always Bob and Kenlock Kelly
