“ Mrs. Gray was a joy each time she came to see us at our office. She had an ease about her and didn't let small hiccups in the day bother her. I loved getting to know her and I will miss her greatly. I will miss her laugh too. Prayers to her family.

“ Stefane was a loyal employee in the Office of the General Counsel in the Florida Parole and Probation Commission where I was privileged to serve with her from 1982 through 1985. She always put the work of the legal office first and helped the attorneys in every way she could. Well done thou good and faithful servant!
