My condolences to the family of Stephen. I worked with him for 2 years, sat next to him in an office and we shared just about every thought, joke, memory we had with each other. We also shared fights and disagreements. Stephen had a beautiful, giving heart. It was my forever wish that he could have turned into the man I knew he was deep down. Someone who has happy. And now he is. He is now perfect and pure, and has no more worldly pain. I'm so sorry. I will be praying for his family.
