“ It's been the hardest week this year. The realization that I'll never be called "sunshine" again is burned into my heart like a branding iron. Just one more day...just one more day and I would give anything. I'd do anything for a hug, a call, one of your stupid jokes. Believe it or not, I've become the semi-quiet one and Nina has come out of her shell a little more. I know what you're thinking....she's the slow one :) I'll walk up and Mama just has tears running down her face and there is absolutely nothing that I can do to help. You are loved and missed so badly.

“ Dear Jesus alone knows how much I miss you. I miss your laughter, your jokes, your unique dance style. Your godawful bartending. We had hard times growing up, but it made us the better for it. It wasn't just your family that grieved for you, this whole town and beyond, grieved for a man that was true to his word. You said what you meant and meant what you said. If I could have just one more morning telephone call with you, I would give the world. You were the best brother that God could have given me. Miss you fool

“ I still can't believe you are gone. I didn't appreciate when you were born...you kinda stole the spotlight, but boy, when I got used to you - I never thought you wouldn't be here. I'm so sorry for the hurts and trials that you had to go through, but Jesus sure gave you a beautiful family that loved you without words. Can you just hug Grayson and Jamie and send love back to us?! I love you lil brother.

“ Always the good guy. Steve made rodeo prep a breeze. If he saw a need, he took care of it. Lord bless his family & hold them tight.
