

Suzann E. Walton

May 29, 1943 - July 12, 2018

Suzann E. Walton, 75, died Thursday July 12th, 2018 at the Big Bend Hospice House in Tallahassee, after a long battle with cancer, comforted and surrounded by family and friends. Originally from Belle Vernon, Pennsylvania where she was born May 29th, 1943. Suzann graduated from Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing in 1963. She moved to Florida in 1966 and married Roger, the love of her life, in 1969. After a long career in the medical field in Pinellas County, she and Roger retired to Crawfordville in 2002 where they fell in love with the natural beauty of Wakulla County.

Suzann enjoyed many hobbies: golfing, fishing, volunteering, tending to her gardens, enjoying the company of friends and family, but most of all touring State and National Parks. With her husband, Roger, Cindy (her trusted 4-legged companion), and her bass fiddle, she would play old-time music for lucky campers.

Suzann is survived by her husband, Roger D. Walton and son, Scott Walton. She was predeceased by her father, William "Bill" Bailey, mother, Cora Mae Bailey, and sister, Marleen Bailey.

There will be a gathering of friends and family at the Bevis Funeral Home – Harvey Young Chapel in Crawfordville, FL on Saturday, July 21st, 2018 from 3 p.m. - 5 p.m. The family asks that in lieu of flowers you make a charitable contribution to Big Bend Hospice or a charity of your choice.

“ My condolences to Roger and and family. "Behind every good man is a good woman" they say. I knew Roger long before meeting Suzanne, he always talked of her. When I did get to meet her I felt I knew her already. She was no doubt one sweet woman with a big heart and a wife of noble character. I played guitar during many times we met to make music. Most of all their friendship met the most. A neat memory for me was when she started playing bass and joined in. God bless you Roger and family.
