

Suzanne Younker

March 1, 1980 - October 12, 2025

Suzanne Younker, 45, passed away on October 12, 2025, in Tacoma, Washington. She was born on March 1, 1980, in Ocala, Florida. She was the biological daughter of Vickie Davenport. She was the adopted daughter of Donald and Sharon Younker, who adopted her in June of 1980.

The family resided in Gainesville, Florida until she was 8, moving to Tallahassee where she graduated from Lincoln High School. After high school she worked and attended Lively Technical College.

She moved to Tacoma, Washington to be near extended family. While in Tacoma, she married and had one son Kingston. She continued her education and graduated in the field of occupational therapy. She worked at the American Lakes Veterans hospital for several years.

She is survived by her mother Sharon Younker, son Kingston and many aunts, uncles, cousins and members of her extended family. Birth mother Vickie Vital (AJ), sister Jazzmine Martinez, brother Tre Vital, niece Claudia Martinez, nephew Riley Martinez, and uncle Eugene Davenport Jr. She also leaves many friends here in Tallahassee and the surrounding area of Tacoma, Washington. Last but not least her beloved dog Meeka.

She was preceded in death by her father Donald Younker, and her grandparents.

The family will have a visitation on Tuesday, October 28, 2025, at Bevis Funeral Home from 4:00-5:00PM, with the funeral service following the visitation at 5:00PM. A graveside service will be held at 1:00PM on Thursday, October 30, 2025, at Micanopy Historic Cemetery, in Micanopy, Florida.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Florida Park Service Ranger Association, James Cook Memorial Relief Fund. 3551 S. Blairstone Road Ste 128 PMB 113 Tallahassee, Florida 32301. Please note Don Younker in memo line. Donations can be made online at <https://fprsa.org/Donate>.
