“ So sorry to hear of your loss.

I have so many good memories of Aunt Syble, especially as I became an adult. Aunt Syble always had such an interest in nature. I will will never forget the updates on the white squirrels, the number of deer coming up to be fed or the occasional sighting of a bear crossing John Davis Road.

From my younger days, I remember spending time with Aunt Syble and her two sisters at Elanor Village and going over to swim at the beach.

Spending time with her on the Fourth of July and being sure to come back the next day to spend some quality time with her once the crowds had disappeared.

She was the person I could count on when I had questions about putting up vegetables. I remember consulting with her on the proper blanching techniques for black-eyed peas the first time I did this.

And of course everyone will remember her famous pound cake and fruit cake!

I will miss Aunt Syble and the enjoyment of our quality time conversations!

I don't know if you'll get this, my name is Ben Davis. I am a relative of Syble Owen's. I have not seen any family on that side of the family in a very long time. Since I was like 10. If there is anyway you could reach back out with any information about the family that would be greatly appreciated. If not I understand. Thank you.
